

Kevin J Rayworth

Managing Director

B.A. (Hons) Dip.Arch, RIBA

Chartered Architect with good design skills and with many years of experience in design of health buildings. Experience in working on large complex health projects, management of design team and liaison with construction managers.

Experience of working with multi-faceted client groups including clinicians, nursing staff, managers and patients. Experience of working with Trust estates including secondment as Acting Director of Estates to major Health Trusts.

Responsibilities:

- Management of the Company in all respects, including appointments, contracts
- Director responsible for all schools projects over the last five years
- Director responsible for Health & Safety
- Management of Design Team
- Overall design responsibility
- Liaison with user groups
- Liaison with Trust Estates & PSCP

Project Experience:

North Nottinghamshire LIFT Client Advisor

North Staffordshire LIFT Client Advisor

Isle of Man Hospital (£86m) Lead Consultant and Project Management

Royal Wolverhampton Hospital NHS Trust New Cross Hospital – Project Management

Realignment of Hospital Street, Dermatology/OPD Package, Relocation of OPD (£2m)

Beighton Local Hospital (£5m)

Ilkeston Community Hospital (£5m)

Responsible for design for special needs schools and housing projects for Sheffield City Council whilst working for the council.

Bole Hill Lane Housing development (£0.64m)

St Andrew's Housing Development (£1.6m)

CPD:

Ongoing programme of CPD in line with RIBA and ARB current standards of practice

Additional Information:

1999 Chairman Yorkshire Region RIBA

1995-1997 President Sheffield Society of Architects

1994-1995 Acting Director of Estates Leicester Royal Infirmary